

- 1) It is obviously that men spent more time watching news programs.
- 2) There was a dramatically increase in the number of cars.
- 3) An increasingly number of people choose to live out of the city centre.
- 4) The cost of food increased significant during the 20-year period.
- 5) I true agree with this opinion.
- 6) People should keep a health diet.
- 7) Happy is very important to people of all ages.

- 8) Getting positively feedback from employers can contribute to a lot of happy.
- 9) The government should share the cost of higher education, because of the society benefits great from university education.
- 10) Traditional ways of teaching will be instead of by technology, including the internet and computers.
- 11) As the development of technology, it has become incredible convenience to travel.
- 12) People need to more communication with their neighbours.